The November meet had a demo by Yours Truly Craig F. end grain Lazy susan. A little different. IF anyone wants my notes let me know and can email to ya.

Dave L. has offered to do a demo for Dec 12th, Laser printing on his pieces and possible a demo using router to work on turned pieces. Dues are due.. Bring check or cash to Gerald Minutes of November meeting. Gerald needs someone to help with ticket sales. Skip Haggerty and Steve Dmetruk won Case certificates. 10 members present. Our new member is Edward Mercer. He may be nick named The Snake Man. I asked him how long it takes him to make one carving and was told 3 weeks. Likes cedar for his wood.

Members present at Nov. meeting Eddie W., Craig F., Gerald D., Karen G., David L., Jerry G., Steve Possey,, June C., Pete B, and Steve Dmetruk

Raffle brought in $ .approx. $ 55.00 4 members have paid up dues.

Craig F did a great demo on how to make end grain board for a lazy susan. No pictures as I did not have enough hands.

Skip Haggerty brought in a baton or small mallet for taping heads. Phillip Thomas gave a talk about Klingspor abrasives. He should come up with a slogan..

Winners of the Case Certificate were Eddie W. and Craig F.

Demos coming up. Dave L.

Hey folks we need volunteers for demos. Paul S has a new sawing bench he wants to brag about but no one else is stepping to the plate. Think about it and sign up in December.

MEMBERS CREATIONS

Paul S.

Cherry and Sycamore top. Industrial style pipe legs and a built in 110 / USB outlet Freebe for daughter?????????? I asked why not super smooth. Paul says my eyesight is shot

Cedar top and unknown wood turned legs and sculpted seat
He mentioned that its to be a shower seat. I hope its sturdy

Paul made this sewers bench. Now who got a saw (hand) and knows how to use it.. I like saws that go whirrrrr eeeeeeeeeeee.

Craig f

Black Walnut flag case and two camphor small canisters. Each transcribed with address of receiver

Now this needs no explanation. Wood holder for stockpiling. We did cut it down to size fits 4 rolls.

12 in lazy susan end grain maple, purple heart, zebra wood, and pine

18 in mystery wood we think is eastern redbud. Platter with 3 small shells ponied in center This was crotch of tree

Ed Mercer
new member carver wood turner

His email is pythonhunter10 Makes you wonder why

Ed has finished up the lower 3 that he gave us a glimpse up last month. But this first is really something. Quite the detail. A black water snake about to have lunch with the chipmunk on top of light pole

Roy Y

A cherry step stool. Nicely done but it lacks a hand hold for old folks.. He put a come back to me about who is old or older. ummmmm

Ken Mattie

I see you all got the story from Ken on his dining room table restoration. Quite a project. Check your email folder for the story. quite a project.

Herb M

Magnolia wood bowl and a mystery wood vase
