Dave L.

demo on lasers printing

Dave L did the demo on his laser printer. Interesting and very well done. Between what he told me a month ago and now seeing it done its not that difficult. And it makes your piece look very professional.

Charles W.

CORRECTION CHARLES W. not Roy Y which I inserted by mistake

Cherry mantle and supports made from Eddies cutting last April. Looks good.

Charles made this planter box then spent 2 hrs painting then forgot to take another picture when the second coat was done. That looks to be a pain

Roy Y.

CORRECTION

This is Roy Y inspiration not Charles which I had somehow messed up

Cherry sewing/craft gift box for Sandy Note numerous box joints.. Handle

Technology wins again I guess.. Just when I thought I had this newsletter something new to make it easier it changed names on each page. Damn Back to the old method
