Meeting Notes

Our May Meeting at Barb's featured Kathy & Don from the Jacksonville club. Kathy showed some of her out-there turnings, and Don showed how he makes boxes that don't look like boxes:

Other items of interest:

- Atlanta AAW Symposium, June 9-12
- Volunteers are needed for the Symposium
- Each Volunteer can generate $100 or more for the club (more details later)
- Don't forget that our club has extra copies of the AAW magazine, and also the English magazine is available on a LOAN basis.

President's Message

I am really looking forward to the meeting on the 18th at Karen's, and hearing about the symposium in Atlanta from all who went. Paul Speich will be giving a demo on hand plane rebuilding and maintenance. I attended the May meeting in Savannah of The Low Country Turners, and a demo was shown on the Lyle Jamieson Hollowing Jig. The demonstrator had made his own jig. He said he had ordered parts from McMaster-Carr and received them very quickly. For something that I am working on I ordered some parts from them at 9:45 on Tuesday morning. The items were delivered at 12:50 on Wednesday, at my address. (They have a facility in Douglasville, Ga.) Their phone & web site: 330-995-5500, www.mcmaster.com. I have requested a copy of their catalog and I should have it at the meeting.
