GREETINGS WOODWORKERS

Our field trip to Kingsland had great attendance and was a huge success. Eberhard Sopp, a German Craftsman, was not only educational, but very entertaining as well. His demo on 'finishing' was interesting to watch. I believe everyone enjoyed the opportunity to see him in action. He makes it look easy.

It was to our regret that the woodturners meeting had to be canceled due to illness. Had we not had the field trip scheduled for the following Saturday, we could have postponed it. But, it was not to be.

This past Saturday, a couple of us went up to Case Woodworking Supply in Savannah to attend Roy Yarger's demo on bowl turning basics. He had a good turnout as well and seemed to stimulate a lot of potential turners.

It is always fun to go to Case and check out their wood. I've only managed to come home once empty handed. Their supply of turning blanks and spindles seems to get larger all the time.

Next month, Roy will give a demo on turning Christmas ornaments. He will be turning snowmen and something else. The 'something else' will be a surprise.

By next months' Newsletter time, we will be headed to Jekyll for our October show. We have a lot of members participating this time which is GREAT!!!! Don't forget to put Sunday, October 4, 1 – 3 p.m. on your calendar for the Opening Reception. It would be wonderful to have a large attendance. Bring your friends.

I will be placing items at the library for display in the next couple of days. Because I had such a great response from all of you, there will be two displays. I'll switch items out mid-month. Please attend the unveiling on Friday, 5:30 if you can.

President's Message

GOLDEN ISLES WOODWORKERS

Ready, Set, Go!

October 1st is swiftly approaching! Get your projects ready, your inventory sheets made out, and your calendar marked.

Hopefully those of us who have been ill will be well enough to attend and hopefully participate.

Also as a reminder, we have the dedication for the doll house enclosure this Friday at the library. Please wear your GIWW shirts.

We still need ideas for a fund raiser for the club, so be ready at the next meeting to discuss it at length.

Always work safe and count to 10 when you're done.
