Saturday doings.

Be sure to bring a chair to Farnsworths joint. Shop is located just south of Gloucester Ave. Across from the water department offices. Demo will be short as much to cover during the meeting. I have been cleaning the shop for a week now and its starting to look good. Still not sure what it will be.

Minutes of Sept. meeting.

Seven members made a showing at Pete's shop in Kingsland
Gerald Dukes, Steve Posey, Pete Bartlett, Barb Hahn, John Kennedy, Karen Grogan, and Charles Walker

KAREN won the Case certificate

THIS IS FROM GERALD.
Neil Turner from Australia will be in Savannah GA Sept 27 at the Savannah History Museum Theatre 303 MLK Blvd, Savannah GA from 5 to 8 PM
There is no charge for this event but you will need a ticket to gain access to the event.
Barb says he turns some unique items that American woodturners have not normally done.
Craig.... I will send a text photo of the website where tickets can be aquired
Or members can contact Barb for more info.

Glynn Arts will have a free Workshop for their members Friday October 13 from 7:30 to 9:30 PM at their St Simons location.
GIWW woodworkers and woodturners are going to set up shop for a free woodturning demo.
They will also display samples of their skills and creations

GIWW members who want to offer mentoring, demonstrations, and general woodworking and woodturning instruction need to contact Barb for more information and to sign up for this collaboration with Glynn Arts.

Sept demo by Barb Hahn…

Starting out tracing a flower

Finished except for lots of sanding and color
Durn good looking flower Looks good Barb

From the President's corner

Time to catch everybody up with the news. I will go in chronological order, in an attempt not to miss anything.

We had the monthly meeting on 9 September in Pete Bartlett's shop. Forced me to clean it up for company. (Bet Craig is doing the same thing for Octobers meeting…)

Barb Hahn demonstrated turning flowers.

The Low Country Turners and Savannah Cultural Heritage Society will host woodturning artists Neil Turner and Nick Agar on Wednesday 27 September from 5 – 8 PM. On 13 October, GIWW is scheduled to havNe a woodworking/woodturning demonstration with Glynn Visual Art. This will take place Glynn Visual Arts, 106 Island Drive, Saint Simons Island, GA 31522. This will be between 7:30 and 9:30 PM. We will be displaying our handy work and answering questions about the process. Barbara Hahn has additional information.

The next meeting is scheduled for 14 October at Craig Farnsworth's shop. Would like maximum attendance. We must discuss where the club is with a new meeting place. We have several sites under consideration. We are working to clear up questions about each site.

November's meeting site and program needs to be determined.

The Christmas Party is coming up and we need to make some decisions quickly. It will be held at Doug Ballards home on St Simons

The club is looking for volunteers to replace the current slate officers.
